This event will be held rain, snow, or shine in the Laconia City Hall Parking Lot. Please be prepared for any kind of weather. There will be no heat provided.

This is the first year of this event, and for that reason, there is no charge to set up a booth. Should we continue with the event next year, there will be a fee.

There is no electricity provided. Should you need power for anything, please bring it. You will have access to public bathrooms in the Belknap Mill during the mart.

The Lights Festival concludes with a Parade that runs through Main St and ends with the tree lighting in Stewart Park. Feel free to stay and watch the parade or plan on having your booth torn down by 4:30 to leave before Church and Main St are closed.
